

Amighty Lord God, let us not fall into the nets of temptation, for without Thee, we shall be surely gathered up and deposited into the holds of Perdition's fleet and devoured by his ravenous minions.

Mend our lives with Thy Redeeming Power and grace as only Thee are capable of, for surely without Thy divine intervention we shall fall into temptation's open grave and perish.

Enter into our souls, cleanse us of all the dirt and grime that temptations bring into our lives so we may be found pleasing in Thy sight and are able to receive Thy guiding light and eternal life in Thee.

Nurture us oh God above, fill our hearts, minds and souls with Thy Redeeming Grace, enable us to take up the path that Jesus set for us when He hung upon the tree so we can come home to Thee.
