

Amighty Lord God of Infinite Existence, we come to Thee in jubilation, for Thy Son; Jesus has vouchsafed our identity before Thee, and we humbly seek Thy presence and guidance in our lives.

Mentor us Lord Jesus our savior, teach us with Thy Word each day, guide our errant footsteps along Thy narrow way, for long is the journey, many are the temptations the evil one places along the way.

Every step we take without Thy guidance is fraught with temptation's snares, and we unwittingly may find ourselves tightly entangled in the mesh that he so cleverly designed to drag us in like a catch of fish.

Now this can be avoided Lord, by our acquiescence to Thy Will, if Adam and Eve had not fallen, we would still be living in grace, for great is Thy glory, greater still Thy loving heart, unwilling from us to part.
