

All things great and beautiful come from His pallet.

Much is overlooked by self-indulgent man.

Each day is a medley of beauty, if one has the eyes to see.

Nature is God's creation, magnificent in it's beauty.