

As always I ask God to bless you, for each day is a party to come.

Many are the times we need His blessings, often we forget that we do.

Enjoy life and keep a setting for God at your table for He completes the party.

Now go enjoy the blessings God has created for your enjoyment.