

Almighty art Thou the God that I serve and adore, for Thou art not my creation but the Creator of all that exists.

My True Father. Creator of existence itself, I call upon Thee for all my true needs can only be satisfied by Ther

Expunge that which in me causes me to stray from the protective shadow of Thy omnipotent presence in me.

Negate my tendency to stray from Thee, fill me with Thy Redeeming and Healing Grace so that I never stray from Thee