

Acept oh Lord my prayers on behalf of those in need, so that all my deeds serve to glorify Thy divine Will according to Thy Omnipotent and Omnipresent Wisdom.

Make of me what Thy will, for I am fortunate in my existence in that Thou so loved the world, that Thou sent Thy only begotten Son to save it.

Elonim, my Lord, I am not worthy that Thou should enter my heart, but I open it up to Thee, speak but the word and my soul shall be reconciled unto Thee.

Nurture me with Thy Word, and true wisdom shall come to me, for Thou created all, knowest all, and sustains all, for nothing can exist without Thy Will.
