

Abraham was promised his descendants would exceed in number the stars and eventually inherit the earth.

Moses was promised that his people would be given the freedom to inherit the land promised to Abraham.

Ezekiel was promised that an omnipotent king would come to unify all men under a new covenant in grace.

Now all has come to pass, for Thou, Lord Jesus, has fulfilled all prophecies and given man the gift of a resurrected life.