

A Almighty God, You never said that You would give me what i want, but You never let me face adversity alone.

M any times I have fallen, and many times I feared to be alone, but You have never left my side. E ach day of my life You have ensured my eventual comfort with Your divine saving grace and love.

N urchering me with Your love, You have rescued me from the grip of sin and granted me eternal life with Tou.