

A ll things considered, we exist at the sufferance of God according to His Will.
M oreover, there is no existence possible on any level, without God,
E very breath we take is unequivocally God's gift, for he is the source.of all life.
N othing, that is counter to God's Will shall succeed or last for long.