

Almighty God, thou art my armor, buckler and shield, if Thou art for me, who can be against me?

Many are the hidden foe who would tempt me into sin, but none of dubious design can prevail against Thee oh God of mine.

Each day, as I face my travails, I am comforted by Thy Holy Spirit and the knowledge That Thy aid never fails me.

Nurtured by Thy Holy Word, strengthened by Thy grace, all I have to do is ask of Thee and I'll no longer need to be afraid.
