

Thou art the source of every breath I take, oh Heavenly Father and for this I can rejoice in the goodness of God.

Holy Spirit, I cling onto Thee, for Thou art my comforter, my blanket of spiritual security my guide along the Way.

Each day with Thee I am renewed, my trials are minimized by the surety That Thou shalt see me through them.

Goodness and mercy are assured me, for Thy Son, Jesus, has paid for my many transgressions with His blameless life.

Oh God, my creator, no god created with the combined minds of all the generations of man can fathom Thy goodness.

Oh Father of all creation, I acknowledge Thy righteousness and sovereignty over all creation, both visible and invisible.

Deny me not the grace to always follow The Way, for in truth Jesus, Thou art the Way, Truth and the Light.

Now, Oh Heavenly Father, I thank Thee for Thy Son Jesus, the Man on the middle cross, for He has redeemed me

Each day I pray for the strength to endure this veil of tears, for in grace, I know that the goodness of God is with me.

Son of God, Thou hast opened Heaven's gate for me, oh I thank God for Thy goodness, oh Man on the middle cross.

Son of God, You could have avoided the indignities foisted upon Thee, but then I and my brethren could never be free.

Open my eyes when I am blinded by the glitter of this world, for in truth, all of the wealth of this world is nought but dross.

Fuel my heart and soul, oh God, with Thy redeeming and healing grace, so I remain faithful to the Man on the Middle cross.

Grant me the infilling of Thy healing and redeeming grace, let the light of Thy love shine through me upon all mankind.

Oh God, my True Sovereign, all praise and glory are due Thee, for there is nothing that can be compared toThee.

Demand of me everything God, fill me with Thy Holy Spirit, for with Thy grace and guidance I can do all Things in Christ
