

This I know is True oh Lord, that
Thou so loved the world, Thou sent Thy Son, the Man on the middle cross to restore us all to Thee.

Heavenly Father, the price of my reconciliation with Thee was paid with Thy Son's death and resurrection, giving my life a new direction.

Each moment of indignity fostered upon thy Son could have been avoided had He just said no, but He chose to suffer grievously and die to atone for my sins.

My God, oh Heavenly Father, had He not done so thus providing Thy redeeming grace, where would errant mankind be, certainly not reconciled with Thee.

Almighty God, my Father, Thy blameless Son, Jesus Christ, endured such intense suffering when He became the middle man hanging on the cross for me.

Now, Jesus could have stopped it all, one Word was all it took and legions of angels would have have taken wing and rose to His defense.

Oh Father God, had he said 'No' where would I be, without Thy grace to reconcile me with Thee, for no sacrifice offered by a sinful man would hardly do.

Nothibg of this existence would have been pure enough to erase the stain of sin that Adam and Eve so firmly placed upon the souls of their progeny.

Then Jesus, Son of prophecy, Thy One and only Son, did set aside His Godhead and lived on this earth as human as any man, teaching us the Way to Thee.

He suffered humiliation, torture and death at the hands of those He came to save, then the Blameless One, in sinless glory, rose from the grave defeating death.

Eternal life was gained for man upon His glorious resurrection, for man could gain redemptive grace and have the chance to be reconciled with Thee.

My God, I humbly come to Thee in simple adoration, for I recognize this truth; it was the Man on the middle cross that reconciled me with Thee..

It was the Man on the middle cross, that suffered so grievously on my behalf and died to set me free, when by uttering one single Word, He could have stopped it all.

Death would not have been defeated, nor the stain of sin erased, for without His affirmation of Thy sovereignty, mankind could never be reconciled with Thee

Delivered from the stain of original sin, strengthened and purified by Thy grace, oh God, I am made fit to run life's rough travail filled race with Jesus beside me.

Love in the Person of Jesus Christ, Thy only begotten Son, has lifted me from the sands of sin, cleansed me of the stain of perdition and reconciled me with Thee.

Eternal life is offered me by Thee, oh Son of God, along with the keys to the Kingdom of Heaven just for acknowledging Thy rightful sovereignty

Come into my heart, oh Holy Spirit, Father take Thy throne in me, for this is the profound truth, without the sovereignty of Jesus I am lost to Thee.

Restore me Lord God to the state of grace, Holy Spirit reside in me, for this is surely the truth; without Thee in control of my life, the Evil One will enslave me.

Often I may slip and fall, for that is the nature of man, yet I am assured of Thy redemptive grace with Thee beside me to guide me through the often grueling pace.

So Lord, in praise I raise my voice, for Jesus' resurrection has placed death firmly in his place, now he no longer controls the outcome of my life's race.

Sing I in adoration, oh Mighty Sovereign King, the God of all creation, Who's Son my battles did win, thus granting me the right to say; I am adopted by the King.
