

Understanding the fact that we are prone to sin, you, our Father Creator and Your Son nonetheless continue to extend Your love to us, regardless of our present spiritual and physical circumstances.

Now I've been in situations that caused me to burn with anger, wanting to hurt those who caused me pain and humiliation, yet Thou hast commanded us to love one another as Ye loved me

Christ, Thou had every reason to react in anger, especially as Ye hung on the cross, yet as powerful as you actually are, You chose to show compassion for those causing Thy suffering and death.

Often I have to reflect, oh Heavenly Father, on the enormity of the love that caused Thy Son Jesus to sacrifice Himself for me, when by His word, he could have stopped His suffering instantly.

Nothing could have stood in His way should He had demanded the cessation of the violence that was visited upon Him, by the hands of man, for He is Thy Son, oh Heavenly Creator

Did I do anything to deserve the love that Thy Son offered me, could any action on my part repay His sacrifice on my behalf? No, for the entire existence and power of mankind, is incapable of such ability.

In His life, death and resurrection, Thy Son conquered death's grip on the souls of mankind, restoring our ability to choose eternal life over the chains of iniquity, thus we must glorify and praise Thee.

Taking responsibility for the sins of mankind, Thy blameless Son suffered and died paying for our sins, bringing salvation to mankind while we were yet enslaved to the temptations of sin.

Iniquity came into play, and we were born into sin and temptation when Adam and Eve fell into sin by disobeying Thy simple mandate, being born of sinful parents we too became subject to sin's temptations.

Only Thy intervention on our behalf enabled mankind to have a choice between a life filled with grace and eternal damnation, for we are insignificant in power and strength.

Nothing can withstand Thy Will, for no matter what the apparent strength or power is manifested by the agents of the evil one, it has no strength when faced by Thy omnipotent and omnipresent Will.

Acept our prayers and praises on behalf of Our fellow man, for we all are in need of Thy intervention, because the denizens of evil intent are always ready to mislead us with empty promises.

Lord, I am unworthy of Thy intervention and in truth, I shall always be unworthy, but I pray that Thou deliver me from the hands of the deceitful agents of the prince of iniquities darkness.

Lord Jesus, Son of the One True God, I acknowledge the fact that nothing any of Thy creations can do shall have any effect on our salvation, save the act of acknowledging Thy divine sovereignty.

On reflection, Lord Jesus, it is a point of my understanding, that Thou, in spite of my wandering ways, have always offered me multiple chances to accept a safe haven with Thee

Verily, amen, truly, three words which mean the same thing, they signify the veracity of Thy Omnipotent Word, for Thou art the One True God, the Sustainer and Creator of all existence.

Enter my heart, mind and soul Lord Jesus, take Thy rightful sovereignty in my life, for only then can I be reconciled with Thy Heavenly Father and gain eternal life in grace with Thee.
