Jesus

Justified by his love, I now am not of this earth.
Each breath I take, brings me closer to His return.
Sanctified by his loving sacrifice, my home is no longer this earth.
Unfettered from the chains of sin, my Savior set me free.
Soon I will be in Christ's eternal company.

JESUS

Justified by His love, I can now enjoy His company.
Each breath I take, is blessed by the Son of God.
Sanctified by His loving sacrifice, I am given eternal life with Him.
Unfettered by the chains of sin, I now live without fear.
Sing I the praises of the king as He keeps me company.

Jesus

Justified by His love, I am made precious in His sight.
Each breath I take, brings me closer to His heart.
Sanctified by His loving sacrifice, I am made priceless in His eyes
Unfettered by the chains of sin, I now live within His care.
Sing I the praises of the King, great are the gifts he doth bring.
