

LIFT UP YOUR HEADS REDEMPTION DRAWETH NIGH

Love was cast aside by sinful man, when he failed to abide by God's word.
In spite of this indiscretion, God provided for man's return to Him.
Freely giving man the gift of salvation, He took the form of man.
Taking the form of His creation He set the example man must take for his return.

Understanding man's weakness, He provided Himself as proxy for sins that were not his.
Paying for man's redemption with agony as He freely gave His life for our redemption.

Yeshua, the Son of God did truly come to earth as man, much like you and I.
Omnipotent Son of the one true God, he joined us on this earth to be our guide.
Undertaking our salvation, the Innocent One, suffered and died in our place.

Hear me, oh son's of man, for you God's Son did suffer and die, for You He rose again.
Each day we all come closer to the time of His return, our hour of redemption draweth near.
Accept the gift He purchased for you, He paid for it with his own sinless life.
Deny not the gift of eternal life he offers, because of His love we have much to gain.
Sinless, he purchased our freedom with His life, taking our just punishment.
Return oh man, to your rightful place in the bosom of God's love, call on Him.
Each day you fail to claim his gift, you endanger your very soul.
Deny not the gift He offers, for you will gain a precious gift.
Each day that passes in your life is closer to his return.
Make way the passage to your heart, let the Holy Spirit in.
Place God first in your heart, for Redemption will soon return
Take heed oh son of man, take heed for He will soon arrive as Judge to see the harvest..
In Christ Jesus – only in Christ Jesus is our redemption assured, so bring Him into your life.
Open up your eyes, be watchful, for Redemption draweth near.
No deed you can discover, nor deed that you may do can buy God's gift for you.

Deeds done for man's desire for fame or personal profit will count simply as naught.
Redemption is a gift of love, from God procured through intense pain and death for sinful man.
Accept this Gift, proclaim your fealty to the one True God, and let Him guide your life.
We, as strong as we may be, are truly weak in compared to the one who brings damnation to it's knees.
Each day that passes without God is lost and can't return, so to the Son of God turn.
Take heed and invite Him into your heart, invite Him to guide your way, invite Him to stay.
His is the power and glory, soon He will return to gather up the harvest and set the chaff to burn.

Now is the hour of your redemption, the chains of sins He has broken, so call upon his Holy Name.
In Him, oh man, resides your future, because of His love, you are redeemed and welcomed home.
God knew you before your birth and created you for better things than that of this earth.
Hear His word, believe upon Him and salvation will be yours as He promised.
