

AMEN

All my deeds of earthly acclaim, oft are forgotten when the day is done, but Jesus's gift continues on and on for all who acknowledge His sovereignty.

My deeds, as all the deeds of all mankind may have their roots in community loyalty, but without Jesus, like everything in this temporary life will come to an end.

Each deed I do is of no import, however its source may be, for nothing Lord Jesus has the power or impact that was created by Thy omnipotent and omnipresent love of me.

Now I humbly acknowledge this to be true, it is far better that I be forgotten by the entire race of man, than even one of mankind is so lost that he has forgotten Thee

AMEN!
