

My prayer:

Lord, God, my Creator, grant me serenity of remembering that Thou will see me through my travails.

Grant that others will see the light of Thy hand in my life through my attitude in this my time of spiritual and physical need.

Nurture me, oh Holy Spirit, with Thy infallible Word, that I may grow as a flower in Thy garden of eternal life and be made truly acceptable in Thy sight.

Grant me the infilling and sovereignty of Thy Holy Spirit that I may be made pleasing in Thy sight and be accepted into Thy holy family.

Do not let me fall into the pit of self-pity or the temptation of despair, Lord Jesus. Grant me the blessing, surety and joy of Thy continued presence in my life. Because, as long as I breathe, my salvation is firmly rooted in the knowledge that Thou art with me and mine. To Thee be the Glory, oh God, for ever and ever. Amen.

As always God bless you all and all whom you meet, mentor, serve, support and love. This in Jesus most exalted name I pray. Amen!
