

That Thou had subjected Thyself to Thy Father's will, even to permitting death to claim Thee, is without doubt, my Lord.

Hear me Lord, as I remind myself of the mindset Thou has displayed in subjecting Thy self to Thy Father's Will to save me.

Each stripe upon Thy body, each prick of the crown of thorns was placed on Thee by my sinful disobedience to the Father

Marked by nails through Thy hands and feet, blood draining from Thy body, one word from Thee to stop it, could have

Inconceivable as it could be, knowing what Death planned, even to prophesying Thine own death. you held Thy Will firm .

Noting that the sons and daughters of Adam and Eve were incapable of creating their own redemption You took charge.

Divine Redeemer,Thou hast continued to hold firm in Thy resolve to give Thine all to rescue mankind from Saten's grip.

Silently accepting the rebuke and unreasonable torture that was mankind's just due Thou held firm in Thy resolve.

Each second that passed tested Thy resolve, and mindset, even so Thou chose filling the requirements of salvation.

The guise of man was not an artifice, but in itself a statement of Thy resolve to rescue mankind from Saten's grip

Oh Father in Heaven, what Thy love designed, Thou hast never abandoned, even unto the sacrifice of Thy Son; Jesus.

Father I entreat Thee, fill me with Thy grace , nurture me with Thy remarkable Word that I may flourish in Thy sight.

Come by here oh Holy Spirit, grant me Thy remarkable grace, that I may gain Thy holy solace in my times of distress.

Hear my fervent prayers, oh Lord Jesus, so that I may be filled with the Holy Spirit and can be reconciled with Thy Father

Remember me Lord, not for my lack of. faithfulness, but for my acknowledgement of Thy loving and faithful care for me.

In Thee is the source of my salvation and the font of healing and redeeming grace, for Thou art the only true God of creation.

Savior of mankind, Thy mind was bent on only one goal the salvation of Thy creation errant mankind needs Thee.

Thou faithful lover of mankind, Thou has always considered the plight of mankind without Thee and found it reprehensible.
