

In Thy Father's mansion Lord Jesus, Thou hast stated; there are many rooms, and one is prepared especially for me.

Now Lord, even when Thou endured the humiliation of the scourge and as Thou hang on the cross, Thou hast blest me.

My Lord Jesus, oh Son of God, how Thee could defend one such as I, in the midst of Thy horrible travail, I'll never know.

Yeshua, I am but a man prone to sin yet in Thy love, Thou has tendered me the ultimate gift of eternal life with Thee.

Fighting against my tendency to sin on my own is a losing battle, for without Thee I can never succeed against temptation.

Almighty God, my king and Heavenly Father, in Thy home I long to be, basking in eternal life in heaven with Thee.

There is no power wielded by man nor fallen angel that can prevail against Thee, for Thou art the Creator God.

Hear me Lord, I plea, make of me a child of purity, always relying on Thy loving omnipotent and omnipresent presence.

Elohim, I come to Thee, in humble subservency to Thy will, asking forgiveness for my trespass against Thee.

Redeemer, God's Son, hear my humble and urgent plea, take me to live in Thy home with Thee, in blissful eternity.

Savior of mankind, I plea, even though I am not worthy of Thee, fill me with Thy healing and redeeming grace in Thee.

Holy and wonderful is Thy healing and saving grace, Thou hast filled it with Thy omnipresent and eternal love.

Oh God of Abraham, I come to Thee in humble supplication, straighten out this wayward nation.

Make of us a nation subservient to Thy will, for we have fallen from grace and have become subject the wiles of sin.

Elohim, we started out as a nation dedicated to Thee, in our hubris we have wandered far, come and guide us home.